ARRIVAL IN VLADIVOSTOK

Visas

A valid passport and visa are required to enter the Russian Federation.

Visitors holding an invitation to the International Far Eastern Maritime Show are eligible to apply for a short-term visa through a simplified process in Russian consulates abroad.

We recommend IFEMS guests to apply for a visa in advance. For more information, contact the Russian Embassy or Consulate in your country of residence. It is not recommended to apply for an entry visa through intermediaries.

Customs

Commercial airline passengers are advised to familiarize themselves with any limits for luggage size and weight to avoid extra charges and inconvenience. For safety reasons, carrying dangerous materials, objects and liquids in hand or checked luggage is prohibited.

For a full list of items requiring a written customs declaration and to find out how to fill in the declaration form, see the Customs control section of Vladivostok International Airport website.

Vladivostok International Airport

The journey time from Vladivostok International Airport to the IFEMS venue is approximately an hour and a half (depending on the traffic).

Vladivostok International Airport offers a full range of facilities for the convenience of passengers, including comfortable waiting areas, VIP lounges, retail and service outlets, and business centre.

Between 25 and 28 July, information and services point will be open at Vladivostok International Airport to provide IFEMS participants with all necessary information.

Access to the IFEMS venue

Information about participant accreditation is available on the IFEMS website in the Accreditation section.

The International Far Eastern Maritime Show venue may only be accessed with an accreditation badge and a passport.

The badge is personalized and may not be transferred to third parties.

You must carry your badge as well as your passport with you at all times during your entire stay at the International Far Eastern Maritime Show venue.

If your accreditation badge is lost or damaged, you need to contact the accreditation point at the FEFU campus (building C).

Badge collection

We kindly ask that you collect your accreditation badge in advance in order to ensure easy access to the IFEMS 2018 venue.

Conditions for badge issue

Accreditation officers will check registration details to ensure that they are accurate and up-to-date before issuing badges. In the event of any discrepancies, it will not be possible to issue badges on that day.

Badges may be collected either in person (upon presentation of a passport) or by power of attorney.

If a participant’s badge is collected by a third party using a power of attorney, the authorized person must present:

- ▼ A document confirming their identity (a passport)
- ▼ An original standard power of attorney form*
- ▼ A list of all participants whose badges the proxy is collecting
- ▼ Copies of the passports of participants whose badges the proxy is collecting.

* A power of attorney form can be found in the Accreditation section on the IFEMS website.

 Without a list and copies of the passports of all participants to be accredited, the power of attorney will not be valid. Copies of passports will be returned once badges have been issued.

Business programme

A plenary session entitled 'Water transport in the age of digitalization and new technologies' will be the keynote event of IFEMS 2018.

The business programme of the IFEMS includes six key themes:

- ▼ Water transport in the age of digitalization and innovative development
- ▼ Shipbuilding. New opportunities in the development of cooperation and expanding localization
- ▼ Russia's place in the international transport and logistics system
- ▼ The port today: from infrastructure to management
- ▼ Water tourism, ecology and clean navigation
- ▼ New legislation for the new age of water transport technologies

The IFEMS programme includes workshops, master classes and panel discussions with renowned national and international experts and industry leaders. IFEMS 2018 will also include a Youth Session.

Simultaneous interpreting between Russian and English will be provided at all IFEMS business programme events.

The IFEMS business programme may be subject to change. The latest version of the business programme can be viewed in the Programme section on the IFEMS website.
